FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MILWAUKEE COUNTY TO PARTICIPATE IN GOLF WISCONSIN DAY

Milwaukee – Milwaukee County Parks Director Sue Black announced that the Milwaukee County Park Golf Courses would be participating in Golf Wisconsin Day, which is scheduled for Sunday, May 16, 2004. Golf Wisconsin Day is part of the broad reaching "Golf Wisconsin" program, a series of promotions and special events designed to boost golf and golf-related tourism across the state. Milwaukee County Parks is the largest golf participant within the program and is targeting junior golfers.

"We are thrilled to offer incentives for junior golfers to get out and play," noted Parks Director Sue Black. "We want to encourage growth in the number and diversity of kids playing golf at our courses."

Reduced greens fees at County Parks on May 16th are as follows:

Oak Tier Courses located at Doyne, Lake, Madison, Noyes and Zablocki Parks, a family of four with one adult plays a nine-hole round for $5.00.

Bronze Tier Courses located at Hansen and Warnimont Parks, golfers pay a greens fee of $7.00 for an 18-hole round, $4.75 for a nine-hole round.

Silver Tier Courses located at Currie, Grant, Greenfield and Lincoln Parks, golfers pay a greens fee of $12.50 for an 18-hole round, $8.75 for a nine-hole round.

Gold Tier Courses located at Dretzka, Oakwood and Whitnall Parks, golfers pay a greens fee of $15.00 for an 18-hole round, $10.00 for a nine-hole round.

The Golf Wisconsin program is a joint effort of the Wisconsin Department of Tourism, the PGA of America, the Golf Course Owners of Wisconsin, the Greater Milwaukee Open, the Wisconsin PGA and the Wisconsin State Golf Association (WSGA).

"As a partner with the State's golfing community, we are committed to promoting Wisconsin as a golf destination," added Sue Black.
